WHAT'S GOING ON IN ROUND LAKE?

- We are excited for the month of March at the Round Lake Community Center! Attached is a calendar that lists events that will be held down at the community center.
- Sierra Merrill from the Unity School District will now be available on Monday nights starting at 4:30 p.m. for any kids that would like help on their school work.
- We will also continue to have Snack Time every Tuesday and Thursday from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. We will be providing all snacks and supplies for activities including games, movies, coloring, bingo, etc.

- The Regalia Class will be held every Wednesday night starting at 4:30 p.m.

Everyone is encouraged and welcomed to come down and participate. For more information, contact Karen Washington at the St. Croix Tribal Center.

- The Miigizii Miigwan Talking Circle will meet down at the Round Lake Community Center every third and fourth Tuesday of each month and will begin at 7 p.m. For more information on the Miigizii Miigwan Talking Circle, contact Mark Stoner at 715-416-4001.

- The Traveling Play Group will host an event down at the Round Lake Community Center on Thursday, March 17th from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. Children from ages 0-5 years are invited down with their parents for special play date. The Traveling Play group is sponsored by The St. Croix Tribal Health Clinic Home Visiting Program. For more information, contact Velma Broome at the St. Croix Tribal Center.

RLC GAMER'S NIGHT

The Round Lake Community Center will be hosting a Gamer's Night on Friday, March 18th from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. Everyone is welcomed and encouraged to come down to the center and participate in the fun. Game tournaments will also be an option for those interested.

Game consoles including Playstations, Xbox, Wii and more will be set up for all ages to come and play. Food and beverages will also be provided.

If you have a special game that you would like to share, be sure to bring it down! If you have any questions, please contact Lisa Mosay at 715-553-1963 or Melanie Lonien at 715-554-4394.

Be sure to bring your controller!
